DEDICATION

In these trying times of sudden change and insecurity there is something comforting and inspiring about a tradition. Birmingham-Southern is a tradition, and the lives of dedicated men may be found throughout its pages of history.

Dr. Abernethy's long period of continuous service is a tribute to his abilities. His love for his alma-mater came to life in him when he was an undergraduate at 'Southern. He was a member of the class of 1930, and as a student he took an active interest in the affairs on the Hilltop. He served as President of the Dramatics Club, President of his social fraternity, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and President of his Sophomore, Junior, and Senior class. His participation as a student stimulated the interests in him which were to carry over into his later life.

To a brilliant man who has graced our campus with his intellect, his writings, and his guidance . . .

to a dedicated man who has given a wealth of service to his alma-mater—as an undergraduate, as a faculty member, and as our Dean . . .

we dedicate this volume, the 1959 Southern Accent.

DR. CECIL ABERNETHY

FROM A FACULTY OF 5 . . . TO A

Inauguration

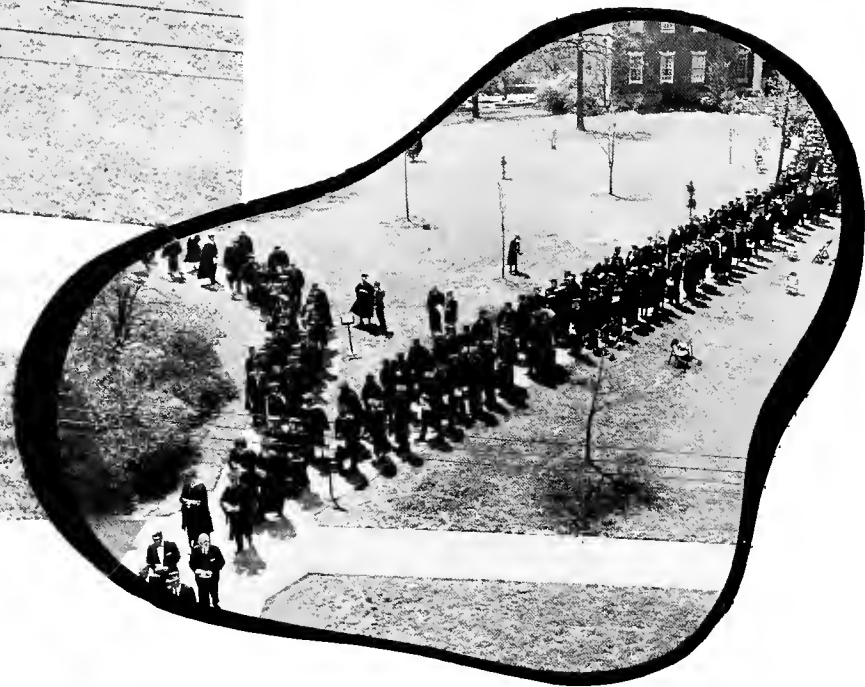

FACULTY AND STAFF OF OVER 100 . . .

The highlight of the Alabama Methodist conference session in 1854 was a sermon by the Reverend Archelaus H. Mitchell, one of the church's able defenders of religious education. His inspiring sermon created a great enthusiasm and began a movement toward the founding of old Southern University.

A charter was obtained in 1856, and after three years of preparation, on October 3, 1859, old Southern University opened its doors officially. Five professors including the president were on hand to welcome the small number of students.

Since the merger with Birmingham College, industrial Birmingham has been kind to Birmingham-Southern. Our annual budget has increased from $15,000 to over $800,000, and our faculty has increased from five to a faculty and staff of over one hundred.

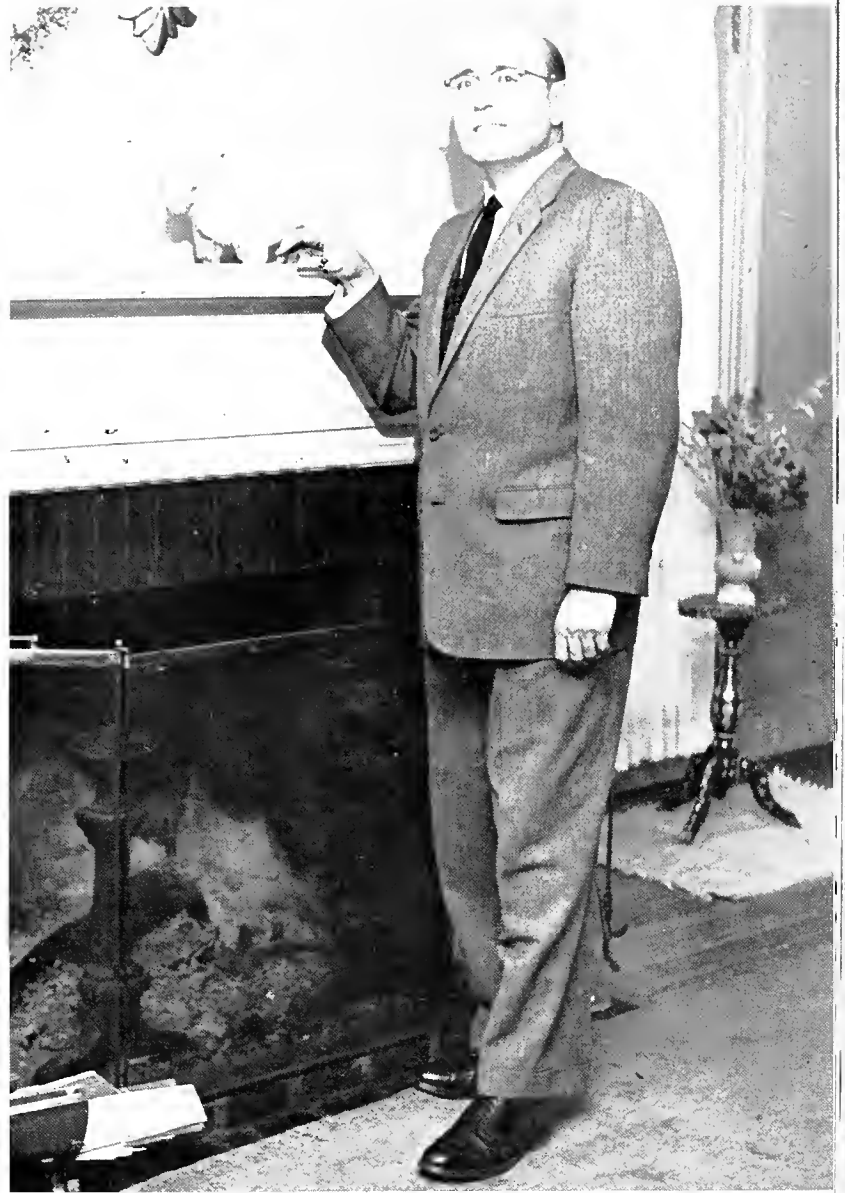

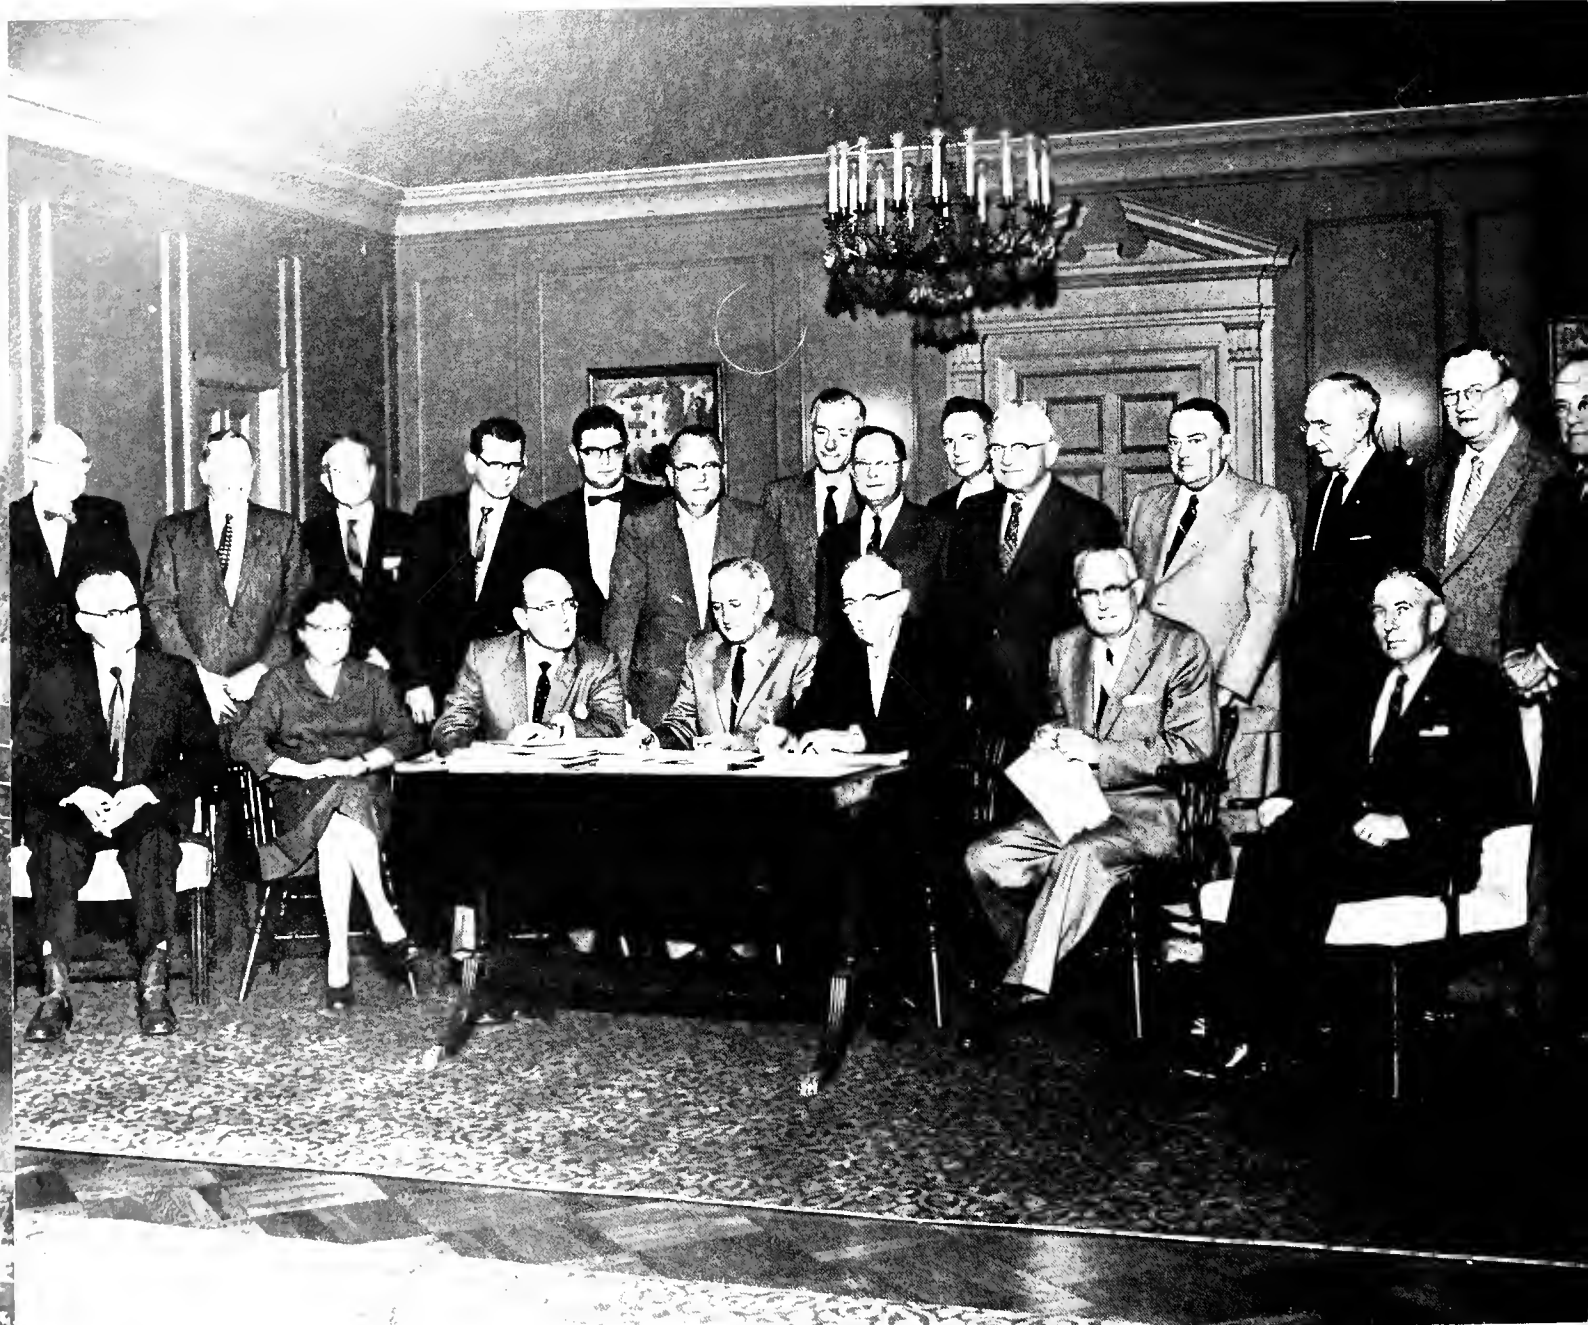

DR. HENRY KING STANFORD

PRESIDENT

As our active President, Henry King Stanford has widened the scope of our outlook and achieved our lasting respect of his abilities. His vast experience and travels, and his interest in all phases of campus life have stimulated Birmingham-Southern in many ways. He has made the whole college plant more efficient, and he has gained the respect and friendship of the students, the administration, and the faculty.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

FROM A STUDENT BODY OF 50 . . . TO A

Graduation

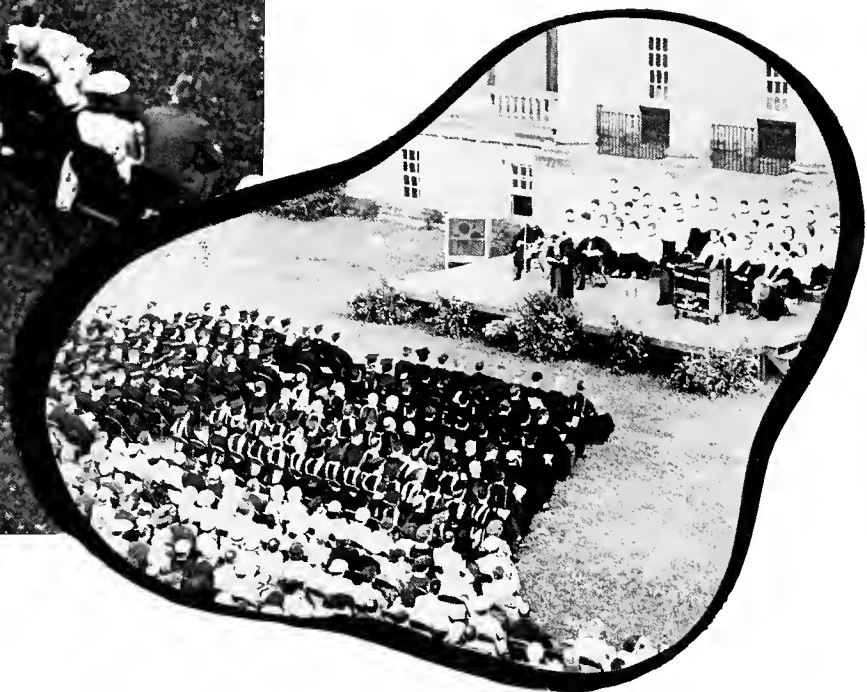

STUDENT BODY OF OVER A THOUSAND . . .

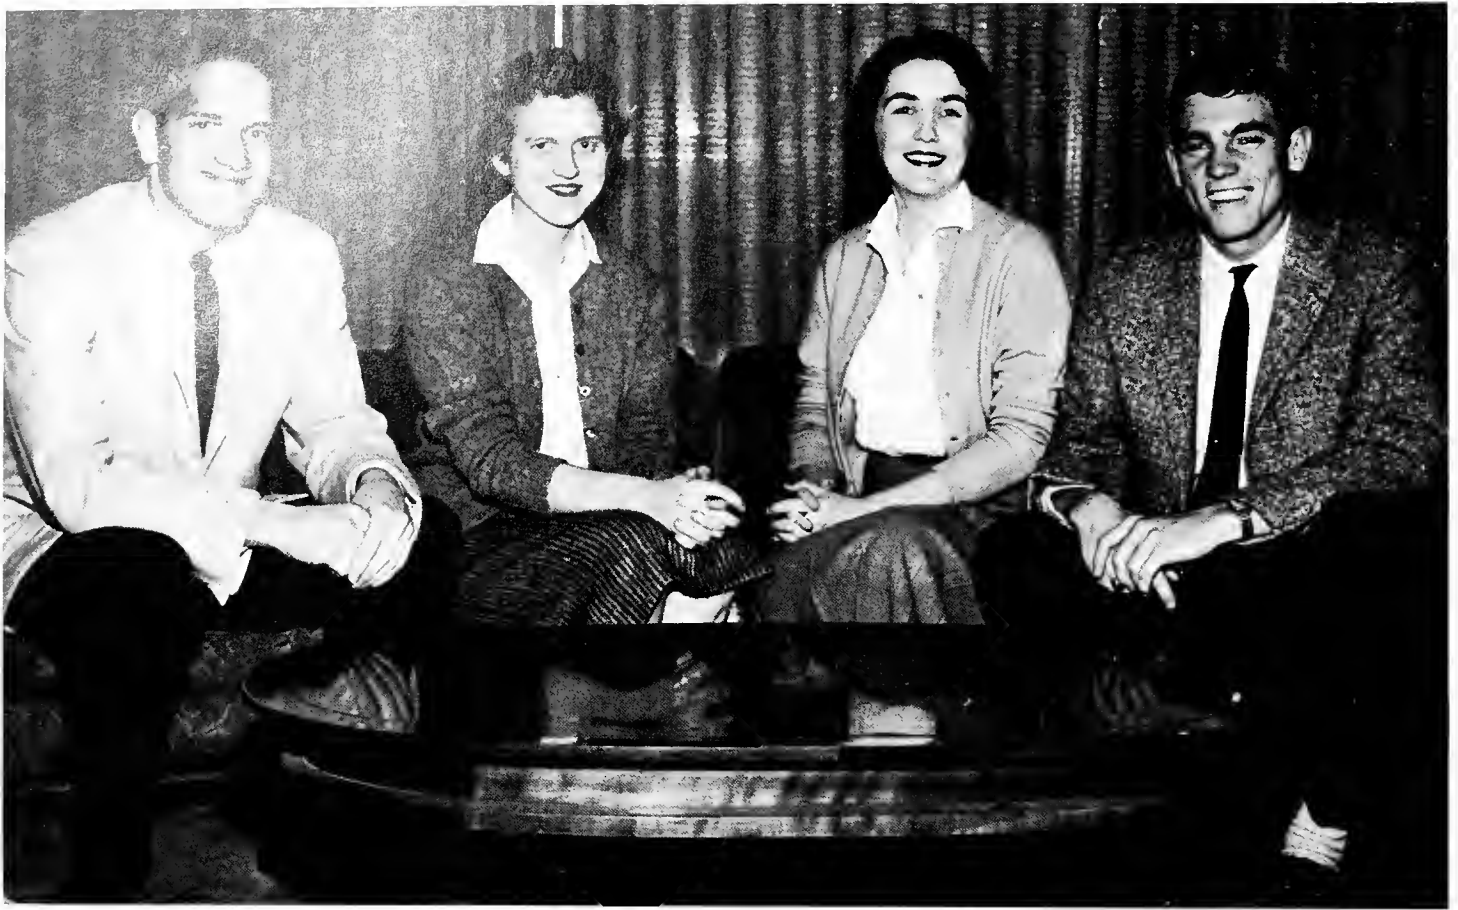

In the opening year in 1859, fifty young men registered for classes. The faculty had intentionally set high scholastic standards for the University. Dr. Wightman, the first president, felt that these standards were “not too high for a career of public usefulness and reputation which awaits the University if they are adhered to with firmness”.

The next school years, however, opened without promise or enthusiasm. The war between the states occupied the attention of most parents and students. Only thirty-three students enrolled, and then a number of them withdrew to join the confederate forces in Virginia.

In spite of the wars, depressions and epidemics, however, the school thrived, and the enrollment has increased from fifty to over one thousand.

REVEALING A FANTASYLAND

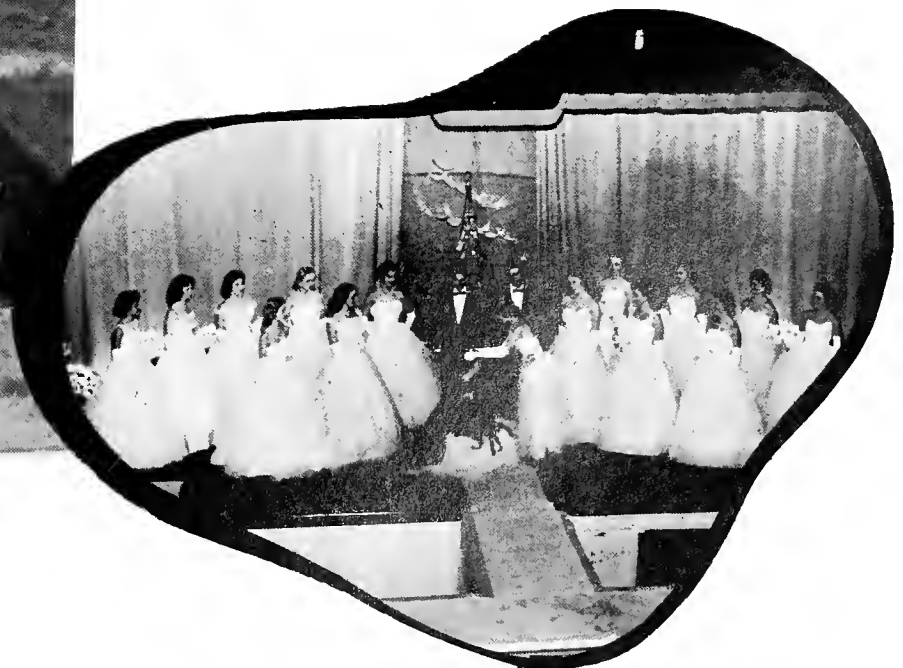

Beauties

OF BEAUTIFUL GIRLS . . .

In 1868 Julia Tutwiler asked for the admission of women and was refused. Finally and reluctantly old Southern admitted women and awarded a degree of A.B. to Margaret Pickett, Miss Tutwiler's niece in 1897.

Since women first gained entrance to old Southern University they have proven their versatility and charm in almost every field. Some of these girls, before they leave the campus scene, enter the fantasyland of fraternity sweethearts, Hilltop News favorites, May courts and May queens, Southern Accent beauties and favorites, and a few have been chosen our queen—Miss Southern Accent.

Miss Joyce Bostick and Miss Nancy Chester entertain with a piano duet.

THE BEAUTY PAGEANT FEATURES A FRENCH THEME

This year, under the leadership of Pageant Directors Connie Boze and Bob Lester, and the help of a staff of forty students, the Beauty Pageant was presented by the 1959 Yearbook. The Pageant, in its second year of existence, featured the fifteen finalists with a beautiful French theme and announced the yearbook queen—Miss Southern Accent.

The girls who were in the upper division were eligible for the title and from these, the judges, Miss Lily Mae Caldwell, Miss Elberta Gibbs, and Mr. Bill Ozier chose our Queen. She was crowned by the 1958 Miss Southern Accent, Miss Barbara Neely, and honored at a ball following the Pageant.

"Without a Song" is crowned by Dale Morrison.

Mortar Board

This year one of the highest honors which Southern can offer to a girl—the title of Miss Southern Accent—was awarded to a beautiful, blue-eyed brunette—Miss Margie Mills.

Margie is a senior, majoring in Religion and Philosophy, and is treasurer of Kappa Delta Epsilon educational sorority, vice-president of the Methodist Student Movement, and president of Mortar Board, the women's honorary leadership-service organization.

Her soft graciousness, quiet reserve, and vivacious beauty have won for Margie the title of the most beautiful—Miss Southern Accent.

From Southern's May Queen...

Lee is crowned May Queen at Southern by Lucretia Giattina, the May Queen of 1957. Attending is a former Southern co-ed, Anna Stange—Miss Alabama of 1957.

With autograph hound in hand, she says goodbye to friends as she leaves for the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City.

At the gala New York premiere of "The Big Country," Lee chats with producer-star Gregor Peck.

REVEALING A HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL

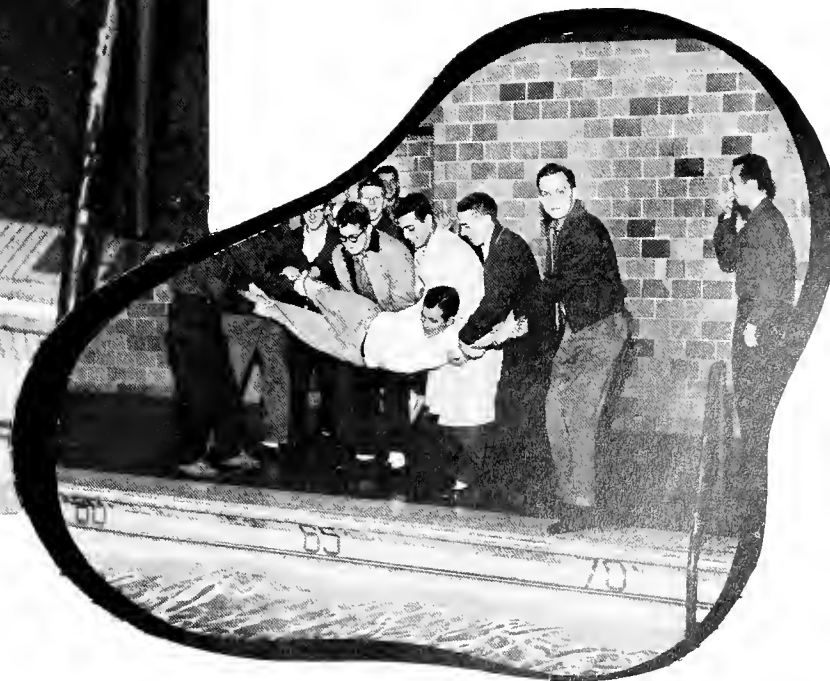

Greeks

YEAR FOR THE GREEKS . . .

On October 28, 1859, just twenty-five days after the opening of Southern University, a number of students met for the purpose of organizing a literary society, the Belles Lettres. The next day another group organized the "Clariosophic Society of Southern University", which later merged into Phi Kappa Sigma. These two groups competed with each other in exciting challenge debates. Although both of these societies now are mellow pages of the past, they prepared the way for the social fraternities and sororities at Southern University.

Greeks at Birmingham-Southern now have entered a prosperous era, which is budding with opportunities for advancement in co-operation and understanding. Many of these greeks have philanthropic projects in which they help some worthwhile organization, needy family, or children. Activities such as intramural sports, Catspaw, and Interfraternity Sing have helped build a spirit of friendly competition between these groups. This year has proved to have been a very successful advance in greek relations.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Panhellenic Council is composed of two representatives from each of the sororities on campus. They serve to promote friendly relations, formulate plans for organized rush, and supervise other policy matters relating to sorority life.

Rush is opened in the fall with a Panhellenic tea for all new girls. The Council under the guidance of Mrs. Robert Cothran prepares information to be given to all girls going through rush.

Throughout the year the council has an advisory board, a dance, a Junior Panhellenic Council, and a workshop for officer training which is held in the spring.

We are continuing our activities in this organization, among others, this year. We are also contributing to our National Philanthropies, the Navajo Assistance Agency and Berea Health Fund of Berea College in Kentucky.

Theta U's are represented in many campus activities and honors such as Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Southern Accent staff, Hilltop News staff, water ballet Amazons, Debate team, and religious organizations. Alpha Omega of Alpha Chi Omega was founded in 1926, and this year was one of our best. Our chapter was chosen by our Province President as "Carnation Chapter of the Month" during the month of September. This honor was based on punctuality in turning in reports and chapter activities.

The lyres of Alpha Chi were seen in Intramural Council, College Theater, Amazons, Choir, Wesley Players, Water Ballet, Religious Organizations, and musical activities.

Alpha Chi's philanthropic work included providing a basket to a needy family at Christmas and various money-making projects for contributions to Cerebral palsy.

The girls of A. Chi O. also had a full social schedule this year which included an all-campus reception in honor of all sorority and fraternity pledges, songfest, coffees, and parties. The year was brought to a close by a weekend of fun on a houseparty.

TAU DELTA CHAPTER

Tau Delta chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi was chartered in 1925 from a local sorority called Tau Delta. This year was one of our chapter's best—with five new actives, fourteen pledges in the fall—and finishing with Alpha Omicron Pi outstanding in various phases of campus life.

Our local philanthropic work centered around entertainment at the Crippled Children's Clinic, while Mr. Hilltopper, the annual show, brought in proceeds for AOPi national philanthropic project.

Our social calendar listed such activities as an all-campus tea in honor of the pledges, the pledge spend-the-night party for actives, the Christmas party, and a Mother-Daughter tea.

Last summer brought the Miss Alabama title to Willie Lee Thornberry and contest scholarships to other AOPi's.

On campus AOPi's are seen in Mortar Board, Executive Council, Eta Sigma Phi, KDE, College Theater, Theta Sigma Lambda, Water Ballet, P.E. Club, Phi Chi, Theta, Triangle Club, and on the Hilltop News staff. AOPi's can also be found in the beauty and favorite sections of the Southern Accent.

KAPPA DELTA

ALPHA UPSILON CHAPTER

Alpha Upsilon Chapter of Kappa Delta, the youngest sorority at Southern, was founded in 1930. This year Kappa Delta has made headlines on Southern's campus. Their season began in high spirits because of a successful rush week which brought in fourteen new sisters. The entire chapter worked hard with philanthropic projects, scholastic aims, social events and campus activities.

Our social events were numerous. The pledge class honored all sorority pledges with a traditional Halloween party and the chapter enjoyed many banquets, parties, and coffees throughout the year. The Founders' Day Banquet and the annual steak fry were very successful.

The K.D.'s actively participated in all campus organizations. We were represented in many honor societies such as Mortar Board, Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Lambda Delta, Eta Sigma Phi, Triangle Club, and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. The Senior Sports Manager, two cheerleaders, Business Manager and Assistant Editor of the Southern Accent, Stage Manager of the college theater, and one beauty and two favorites in the Southern Accent, were all wearers of the Kappa Delta Shield.

PI BETA PHI

ALABAMA ALPHA CHAPTER

Alabama Alpha chapter of Pi Beta Phi was founded at Southern in 1927 and has prospered greatly. Again named the top chapter in the province, this year our chapter has had a big year socially and scholastically.

Fall quarter was highlighted with a dinner dance honoring the pledges, and the exciting year was climaxed with the houseparty.

From head cheerleader to president of Alpha Lambda Delta, Pi Phi's were found leading the campus. Arrow girls were the presidents of KDE and Phi Chi Theta, and held offices in Mortar Board, Amazons, Phi Sigma Iota, Price Fellowship, MSM, Panhellenic Council, Physical Education Club and the Freshman Class. Editing the Hilltop News was a Pi Phi, and others worked on the Southern Accent staff, intramural council, and the student executive council. Pi Phi's were found also in Who's Who and in the beauty section of the annual.

Entertaining at the crippled children's hospital, "Cookie Shines", participating in intramurals, and entertaining the province president—all of this is part of being a Pi Phi.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

ALPHA NU CHAPTER

Since its founding in 1922, Alpha Mu chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha has had increasingly successful years, and 1958-59 was a top year for Southern's oldest sorority. Having come from international convention with a silver bowl awarded for filling our rush quota for two consecutive years—the Zeta's continued this tradition and rush season ended with fifteen girls wearing our turquoise and grey pledge pin.

With this start the Zeta Spirit seemed to spread into all areas of campus life. In campus organizations and activities Zetas could be found as president of the Religious Council, co-editor of the Quad, and members of the Executive Council, the Honor Council, the Debate Team, and such honoraries as Alpha Lambda Delta, Alpha Psi Omega, Triangle Club, and Who's Who in American College and Universities. Other Zetas are represented in the beauty section of the Southern Accent, and as fraternity sweethearts.

Fun was ours to, with many parties filling up the calendar and climaxing another top year for Zeta Tau Alpha.

PHI CHAPTER

This year saw Phi chapter of Kappa Alpha celebrating its seventy-sixth year on Southern's campus. Phi chapter, the first chapter of Kappa Alpha in Alabama, was founded in an old mansion in Greensboro, Alabama in 1882, and is now the oldest chapter in continuous existence at Birmingham-Southern.

Since that time Phi chapter has contributed to all phases of campus life. K. A. is well represented in the varsity sports program with brothers Waggoner, Pickel, Bryan and Yelverton on the varsity basketball team. We are represented in many groups such as college theater, and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Phi chapter has many prominent alumni. They can be seen in the state legislature, and the state and city judicial system. In the field of education, our chapter is represented by three faculty members of Birmingham-Southern, and the past president of Florida Southern University.

DELTA CHAPTER

In 1871 Pi Kappa Alpha granted a charter to Delta Chapter, the first social fraternity at 'Southern.

Talent was the feature which marked the 88th year for the men of Delta chapter. The main reason for this was a talented pledge class unequaled in the past, joined with talent already present in the chapter. This astounding talent was seen in College Theatre where every event was dominated by Pikes and the choir and theatre had Pikes as presidents.

Finishing third in football, placing four on the All

Star team and being a big threat in basketball and swimming caused many eyes to follow our athletic season.

In other campus activities Delta men were busy in the S.G.A., Triangle Club, Toreadores, MSM, Alpha Kappa Psi, and Alpha Psi Omega. Brother Hopper was chosen Mr. Hilltopper and was selected for Who's Who.

This year saw some of our most successful parties and came to a close with our annual House Party.

In 1878, Alabama Iota received its charter and was the first fraternity at old Southern University to own a house. This year, the second in our new lodge, opened with the pledging of nineteen men.

Throughout the year brothers participated in every phase of campus life, and held the presidencies of the following organizations: The Student Government Association, Honor Council, Men's Dorm Council, Phi Eta Sigma, Triangle Club, Baptist Student Union, Theta Sigma Lambda and Eta Sigma Phi. Also a "Sig Alph" served as editor of the Southern Accent.

The membership of ODK included brothers, Hearn, Mitchell, Braswell, Smith, Donahue, Price and Tatum, while Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities picked brothers Hearn, Braswell, Smith and Mitchell.

The Scholarship Trophy was captured in the fall by Alabama Iota.

The social life was especially full this year. The sweetheart, horror, lake and house parties were a few of the social functions in the life of Alabama Iota.

THETA CHI

BETA XI CHAPTER

Theta Chi Fraternity originated on Birmingham-Southern's campus as a chapter of Beta Kappa Fraternity. In 1942 when Beta Kappa and Theta Chi merged, this chapter became Beta Xi Chapter of Theta Chi.

This year has been one of the most progressive years in the chapter's history. One of the most significant accomplishments was the organization of the long awaited alumnae charter.

A crowded social calendar including the Christmas Dance, Red and White Ball, Rebel Reunion, Alumnae Reunion, and a house party in Florida accented this most successful year.

REVEALING AN EXTENSIVE

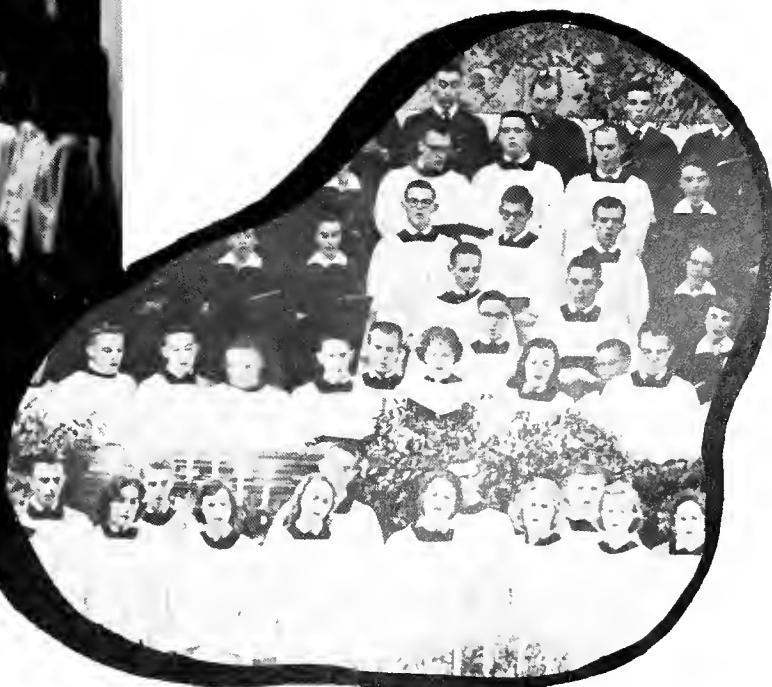

Organizations

SYSTEM OF ORGANIZATIONS . . .

From the beginning the administration was extremely concerned with the discipline of the students. No cuts were allowed in class, and absence from church was strictly forbidden. With this strict supervision, most of the faculty looked with scorn on the idea of self government for the students, or any kind of extra-curricular organization. They favored only those organizations which advanced the academic side of education.

Gradually the administration began to realize that these organizations would be an advantage to the student—providing a workshop for good citizenship. In the early 1900's students organized the honor council to "carry out the honor system more effectively." All kinds of clubs were formed; even an anti-tobacco league to discourage the use of tobacco came into being during this period.

The organizations at Birmingham-Southern now have grown, under the active support and participation of both students and faculty, into an extensive system.

THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

TOM HEARN—President

Student Government Association is the official campus organization of the Student Body. Officers are Tom Hearn, President; Johnny Biddle, Vice-President; Inez Thomas, Secretary; and John Woodham, Treasurer.

The governing unit of this organization is the Student Legislature composed of representatives from both upper and lower divisions. This year's Executive Council (now Student Legislature) proposed and secured approval of a new Student Legislature which provided for the SGA. They also sponsored a Christmas concert and dance featuring "The Hilltoppers." Other activities of the Legislature included issuing a monthly Student Calendar and improvement of traffic regulations.

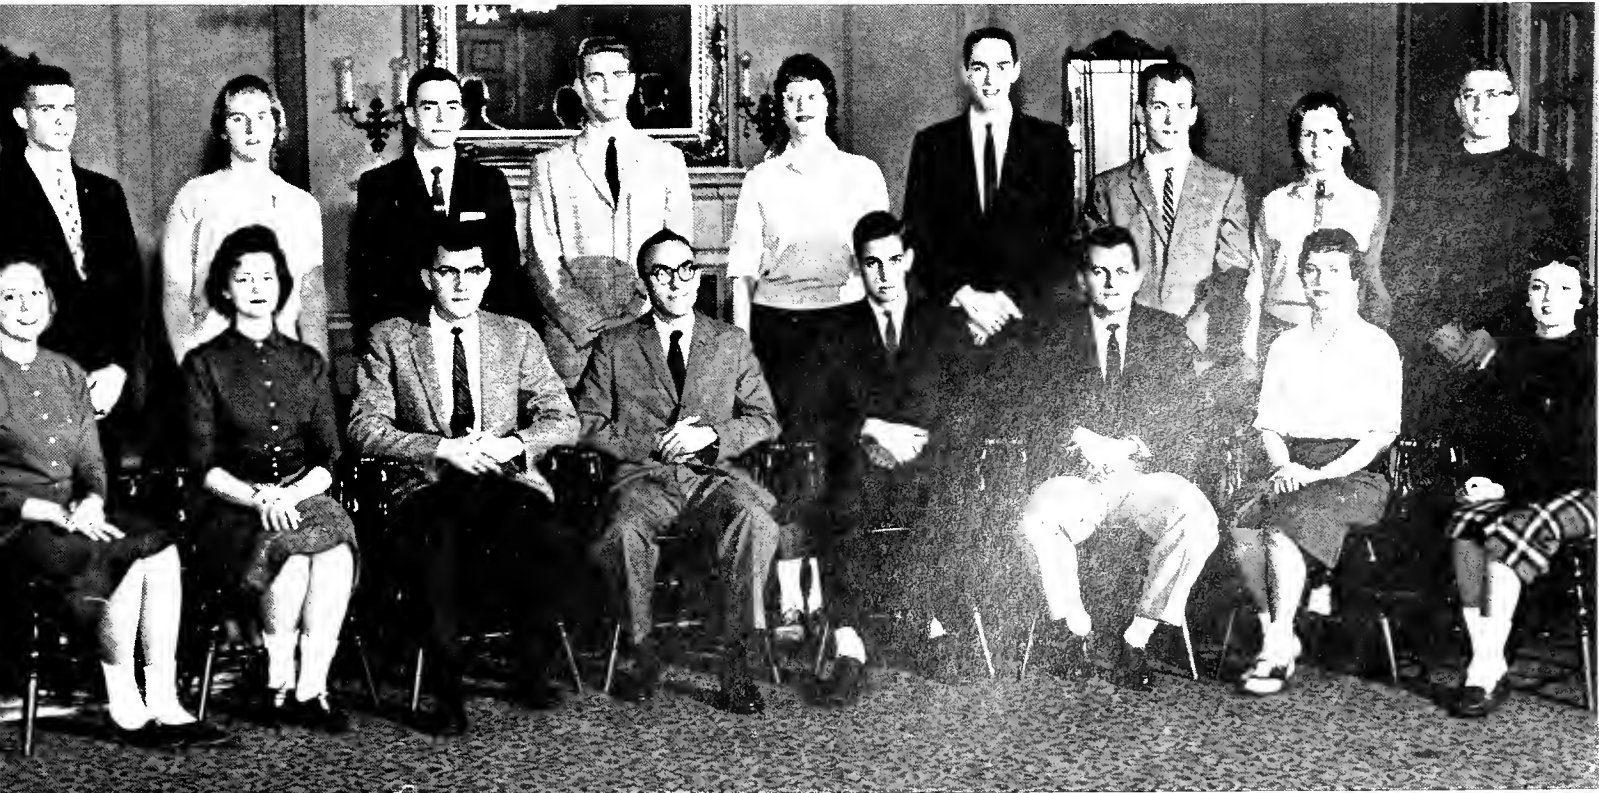

A Student Cabinet, which works in the field of Student Activities, consists of four permanent members and other appointed members from various areas of campus activity. This representative group plans such campus events as Cat's Paw and May Day and regulates Campus Elections and functioning of organizations.

Vice-President Johnny Biddle serves as Master of Ceremonies at the SGA sponsored "Cat's Paw."

HONOR COUNCIL

The Honor Council is composed of selected students and faculty members who review violations of the Honor Code. All students are required to sign a pledge committing themselves to uphold the Honor Code which is provided for in the student body constitution.

THE 1959 SOUTHERN ACCENT

Pictures, pictures and more pictures—until they all begin to look alike. In addition to pictures, there were mounds of copy sheets, write ups and exchange annuals confronting us.

Pictures, ideas, words—these were the materials with which we began to work. To list all of those who had a hand in this work would be impossible. There are those who financed the book, and then those who moulded it. But there are many others who helped with the endless tasks involved in the preparation of the beauty pageant, scheduling appointments for class pictures etc. This book represents a year of work by unselfish students.

We have tried to do more than give an account of the activities of this year. Our goal is to reveal the history and the traditions of Southern in a way more meaningful to you. If, in the future, you feel that this edition reveals Southern in a new light, we will feel that it has accomplished its purpose.

This year, after a lapse of 16 years, Quad, the literary magazine for Birmingham-Southern students, was revived. Two issues were published and were well received on the campus.

There is a need on every college campus for mediums of expression for students. It is the hope of the editors of Quad that this magazine will adequately fill this need and that it may continually expand its scope and always maintain a high level of quality.

The Ministerial Association seeks to make a place for pre-theological students of all denominations on Southern's campus by providing a program that will encourage them in their pursuit of an education and will help them to better minister to the spiritual needs of people.

At their Tuesday night meetings they have had outstanding programs. Bishop Bachman Hodge of the North Alabama Conference of the Methodist Church opened the year with an address to the theologs on the things he would do if he had his career as a minister to live over again. Other programs included a presentation of slides on the Classical lands by Dr. O. C. Weaver, a discussion of the plight of the Southern minister led by Mr. Charles Prestwood, a fall banquet featuring Mr. Alan Montgomery as speaker, and a talk by Dr. Frank Cross on the Dead Sea Scrolls.

The members of the Ministerial Association participate weekly in the morning devotions at the Goodwill Industries in Ensley.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

Every second and fourth Tuesday evening Methodist students gathered for supper meetings of the Methodist Student Movement. Along with its continuous emphasis on a deepening fellowship, MSM emphasized the keeping of spiritual growth in step with intellectual development.

These emphases have taken shape in the many activities of the year, which include: The Wesley Players' quarterly productions, the MSM Choir, Deputation teams to Georgia Tech and Howard, weekly study breaks in the Cellar participation in the State MSM Conference, and unique programs. Two of the year's highlights were the Early American camp meeting and a talk by Norman Cousins, Editor of the Saturday Review of Literature.

President, Henry Golson; Vice-President, Margie Mills; Secretary, Martha Rose Hanson; Treasurer, Clark Boddy; and Faculty Advisor, Dr. Robert Hites have worked with a group of nearly thirty officers to carry out MSM's program.

CANTERBURY CLUB

The Canterbury Club is the official organization of the Episcopal students of Southern's campus. It seeks to enrich the student's life spiritually as well as socially. The Canterbury Club meets every Tuesday morning in Stochom Woman's Building for a program of inspiration and fellowship consisting of speakers, student talks, and discussions. A fellowship supper is planned for one night a month.

Projects and activities of the Canterbury Club for the past year have included corporate communion services, dinner meetings and socials, study groups, and an all-campus spaghetti supper. Membership in the Canterbury Club is open to all Episcopalians in the College and to others who share its purpose and desire membership.

REVEALING A WELL BALANCED

Athletics

ATHLETIC PROGRAM . . .

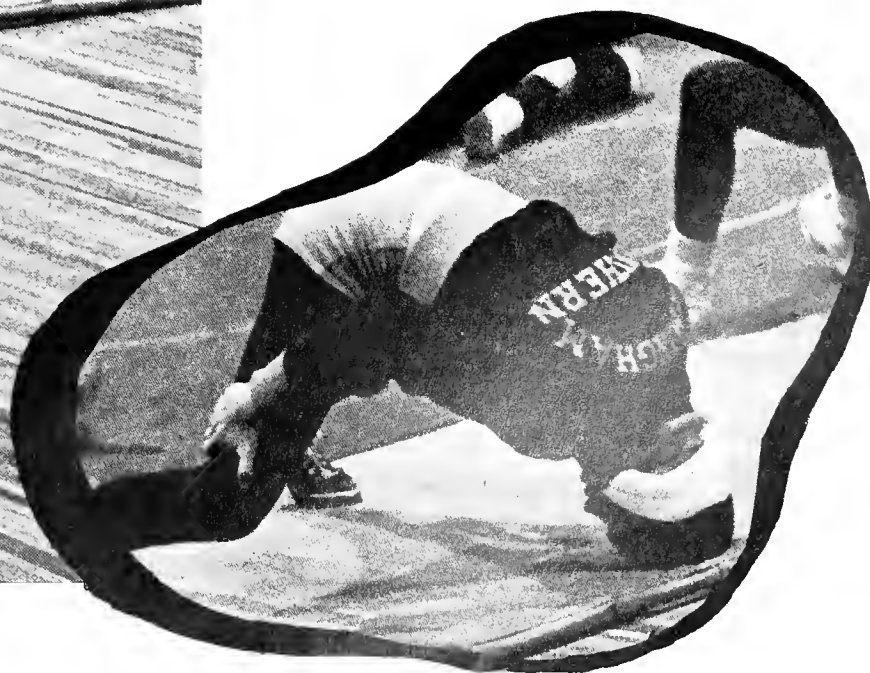

During the greater part of the history of the institution, students have had little restrictions as to their games and sports, but in the early days, just as it is today, intercollegiate football was considered impractical. The major emphasis was placed on baseball and tennis at that time and strict regulations were imposed.

Since then many changes have been made in both the varsity program and the intramural program. With the development of fraternities and sororities, our intramural program grew into a program involving a variety of sports such as football, baseball, volleyball, basketball, and swimming. And this eventually gave birth to our school-sponsored individual sports program.

In the course of years, the baseball team and tennis team died away as our major sports and basketball has grown into their places. Depending on interest shown each year, the school has supported various varsity teams, such as a tennis team, a swimming team and finally, the wrestling team.

Instead of imposing restrictions on sports, the school's ultimate aim now is to maintain a well balanced athletic program which provides ample opportunity for student participation.

PANTHERS 1958-1959

This year, with seven returning lettermen, the Birmingham-Southern Panthers did not achieve the record that was expected of them. The cagers, however, were almost unbeatable on their home court and finished with a 13-12 record.

In spite of the long, tough schedule that the team faced, the players gave it all they had, and this year eleven men were awarded a varsity basketball letter.

Returning lettermen Andrews, Pickel, Yelverton, Stooke, Thompson, Clem, and Light got letters again this year, and Bryan, Waggoner, Hines, and Rochelle also received a 1958-1959 letter.

With five lettermen leaving, the prospects for next year look uncertain, but we will be able to depend on the six remaining lettermen to do their best. They may surprise us.

A word of encouragement, and Coach Burch sends the team out with determination to keep their lead.

"Panther" team-mates, Yelverton, Thompson, and Stooke, are alert to take advantage, as a Huntingdon player looses the ball.

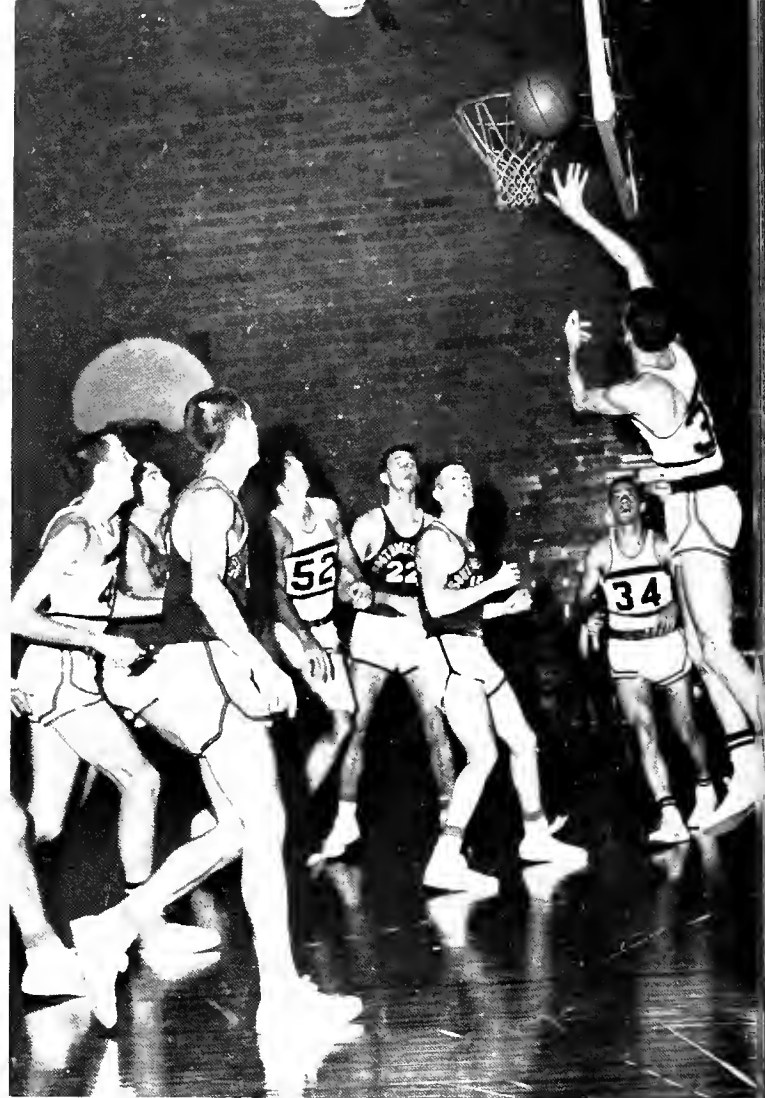

The pre-game "warm up" is a familiar sight to Southern fans.

THE 1958-1959 WRESTLING TEAM

This year 'Southern's wrestling team finished its second year of existence without a win, but although the team didn't win, they showed a great spirit and should be commended for sticking with it.

Several of the team members won their own matches and will be returning lettermen next year. Those who received a varsity wrestling letter were Jack Phillips, John Putman, Elvin Hilyer, Eddie George, Martin Kite, John Culverhouse, Dan Kitchens, and Bob Gay.

With the interest at 'Southern building up as it has this past year, we can soon look forward with a brighter outlook.

Tension mounts in the crowd as 'Southern's Bob Gay and a Sewanee grappler prepare to wrestle.

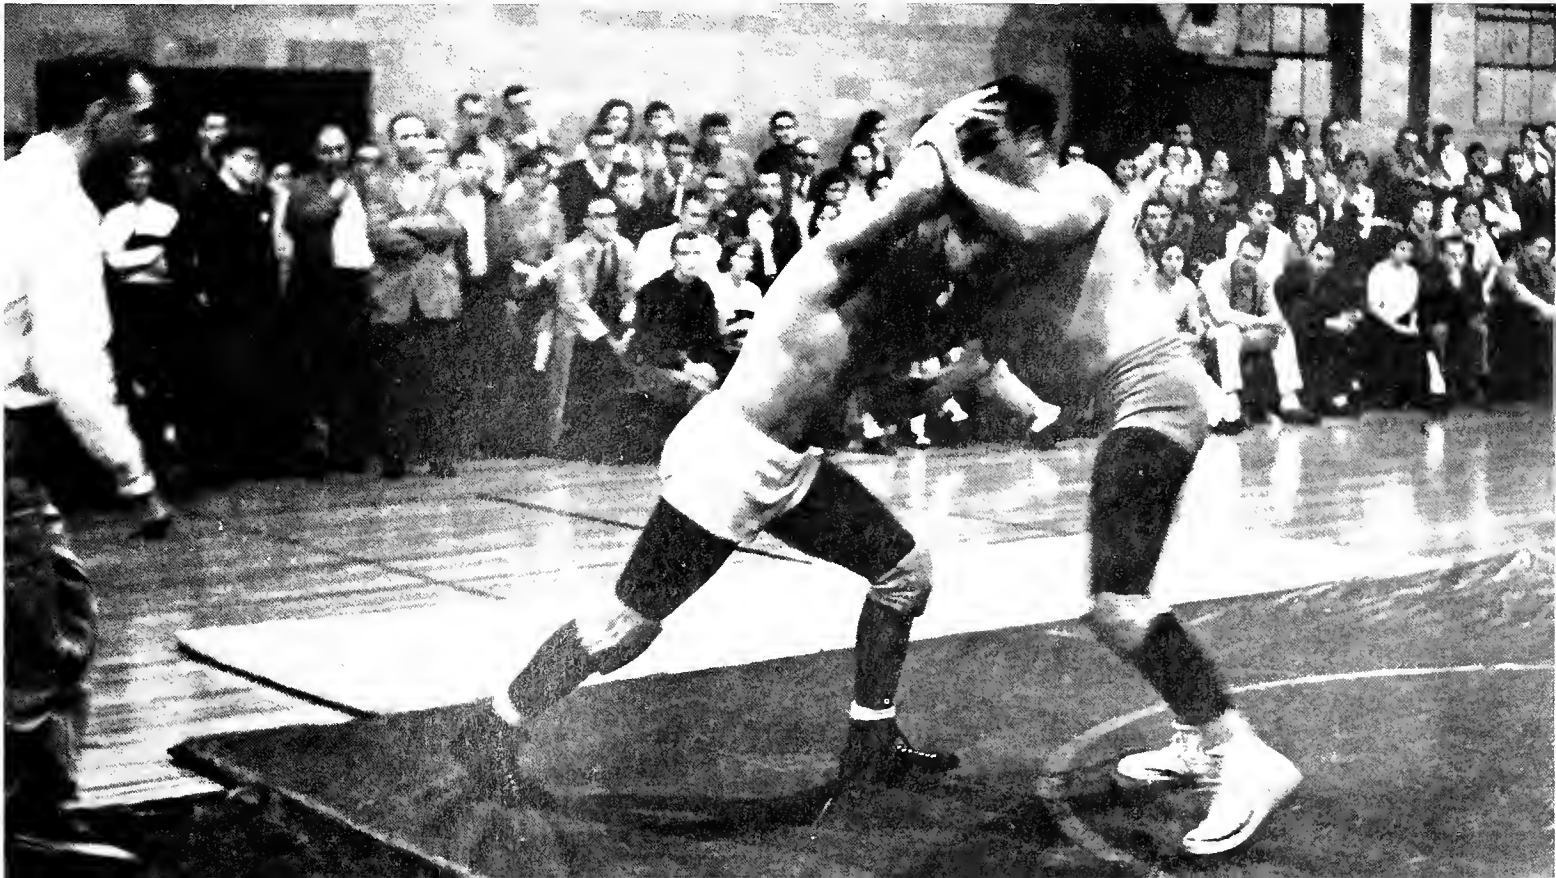

In an exciting moment, John Culverhouse struggles to keep from being pinned.

SOUTHERN'S CHEERLEADERS

One of the greatest examples of school spirit at Southern could be seen in our seven lovely cheerleaders, led by head cheerleader Marilyn Smith. These girls deserve thanks for their work in stimulating school spirit, in developing new cheers, and in helping to guide visiting teams around campus.

Southern students and faculty members came to the games with enthusiasm for their team.

THE MEN'S INTRAMURAL COUNCIL

Seated: J. Biddle, Coach Battle. Standing: B. Bryan, E. George, O. Clark, D. Cutcliff, D. Rayercraft, J. Slaughter, L. Hines, N. Glass, J. Stooke, C. Wilson.

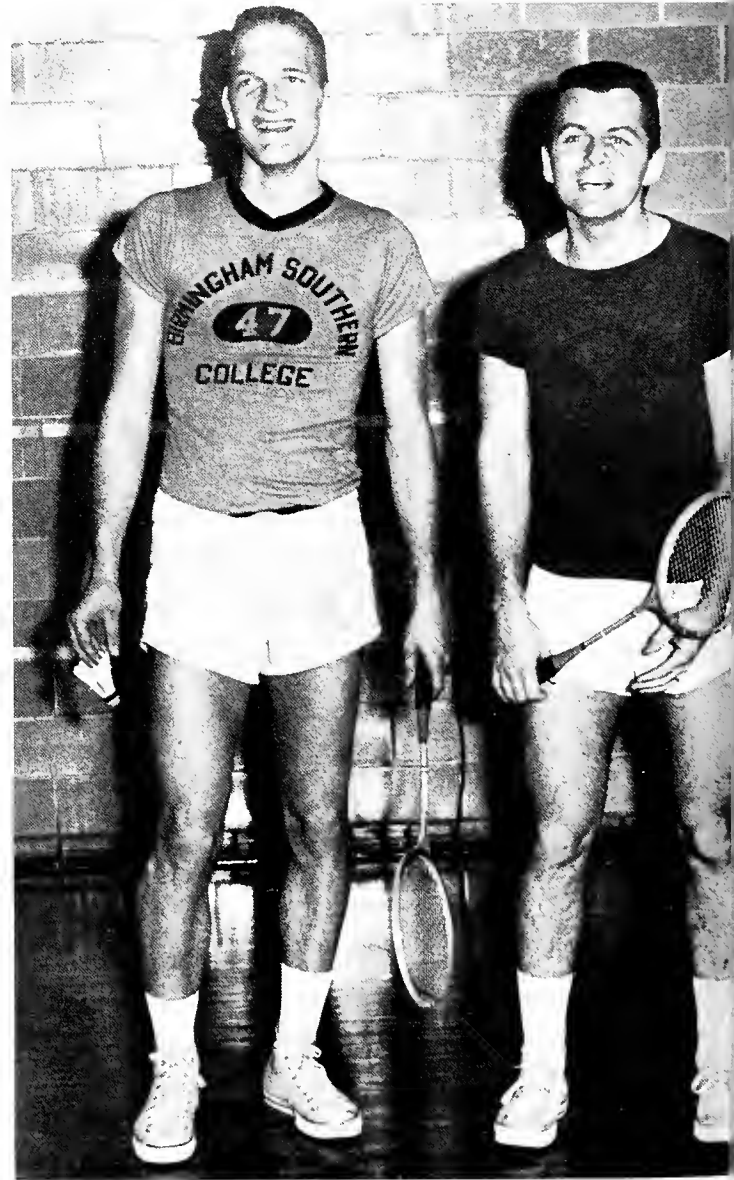

Under the leadership of Coach Bill Battle as director of intramurals, the Men's Intramural Council prepares the schedule for the intramural program, and formulates the regulations which govern it. The council is composed of representatives from each of the groups which participate in intramurals.

Emphasis is placed on a varied type of program in which hundreds of students may participate in some way. Such sports as touch football, volleyball, basketball, swimming, ping-pong, paddleball, badminton, tennis and softball, serve to feed the competitive spirit of many, and the winners are given cups and medals.

The ATO football champions score one of their winning touchdowns.

Bodie Cole—Ping-Pong Champion

Johnny Martin stepped up as badminton champ by defeating Johnny Biddle.

The swimming relay competition always causes excitement!

Bobby Wingard, ATO—Paddleball Champion

In spite of stiff SAE and Theta Chi competition the ATO's won the swim trophy for the ninth time.

Wallace Graddick of the ATO basketball champions scores a point against the SAE's.

The All-Star football team—the selected best from 'Southern's intramural football.

THE WOMEN'S INTRAMURAL COUNCIL

The Women's Intramural Council is responsible for setting up schedules and regulations for the women's intramural sports.

Fall quarter the women's "Dust Bowl" was added as participants battled fiercely in a game of touch football.

This year the efforts of the Intramural Council have been directed toward increased participation in the women's intramural program. The program includes volleyball, badminton, basketball, ping-pong, swimming, softball, and tennis. The council each year sets up the tournaments directed by managers of the various sports. Major changes have been made in the total program. The managers have worked closely with sorority and independent representatives to maintain the intramural program on a high plane of efficiency and good sportsmanship.

REVEALING A CAMPUS LIFE

Activities

FILLED WITH ACTIVITIES . . .

Students through the years have not been without their activities. Many tales could be told to lighten our history. A system of espionage prevailed in the early years of the school which was partly responsible for a lack of fellowship between faculty and students. Any surplus vitality which the boys had was worked off at the expense of the faculty.

The hiding of professors' buggies was a stock joke and occasionally professors were locked in rooms by promising young students.

Our early history is full of hair-breadth escapes from professors, foot races, vengeful pranks and April Fool escapades.

Since that time, however, better faculty-student relations have stopped the persecution of professors. Although even now our student still has his pranks, imagination is used more frequently in our well planned all-campus activities.

THE FALL CAMP WAS A TREMENDOUS SUCCESS

Freshmen brought all their luggage to the dormitories, donned sports clothes, and eagerly climbed into the busses, headed for Fall Camp.

In the informal atmosphere of Camp Winataska, over four hundred new students along with faculty members and student leaders set their sights on a new year of college life.

The success of the camp was evident in the enthusiasm with which everyone made friends, discussed problems, participated in folk games, and joined in worship.

On Saturday night at the talent show sponsored by the Triangle Club new students showed their talents at entertaining. As a means of orientating new students the camp proved invaluable.

In an informal discussion group, Dr. Stanford and Dr. Beandry explain what 'Southern has to offer.

The grand march begins an evening of folk games.

Greedy campers gang up to gobble as Mr. Stanford gazes.

The Minstrel is a hit at the Talent Show.

Mr. Anderson directs the singing in the chapel.

The discussion groups proved interesting and helpful.

BISHOP MURRAY addresses the student body at convocation.

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

This year a favorable impression was made on 'Southern's students by The Right Reverend George M. Murray, a young, outstanding, and heartwarming Bishop of the Episcopal Church. They found him completely aware of the problems which confront a college student, and his sermons during the week, "For All of Life," "With All Thy Mind and Strength," "To Love and to Cherish," and "And Who Is Thy Neighbor," were well received.

The Catholic and Jewish students had services of their own conducted by Father Eugene Mueller, and Rabbi Stamfer.

The services, devotionals and discussion groups created sincere interest and increased ties of fellowship among students.

Father Eugene Mueller, Rabbi Nathaniel Stamfer, and Bishop George Murray greet Dr. Stanford and some students at their reception.

'Southern's full choir is very popular and is open to all students.

Ginny Sue Trimble, Assistant, and Mr. Raymond Anderson, Choir Director.

'SOUTHERN'S CHOIR

Under the direction of Mr. Raymond Anderson, Southern's choir is a very necessary part of campus life. The beautiful anthems during Religious Emphasis Week, the entertaining convocation programs, and the annual Christmas program are a few of the activities which make the campus proud of the choir and the choir members.

Because of its fine reputation the choir is enthusiastically received by churches and schools on its annual choir trip. This year the choir toured north Alabama and southern Tennessee.

It is quite an honor to be chosen to represent the school in the Birmingham-Southern Touring Choir.

THE MR. HILLTOPPER SHOW

Once more, this year the annual Mr. Hilltopper show was presented to Southern students by the Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority. For more than fifteen years this variety show has brought out some of Southern's best entertainers.

The candidates for Mr. Hilltopper are selected by each of the sororities and fraternities, and the final choice is made by the audience at the performance. The announcement of Mr. Hilltopper of 1959—Art Hopper, was made at the dance following the program.

All of the proceeds from the show are given to the AOPi's National philanthropic project, the Social Service Department of the Frontier Nursing Service in Kentucky.

MR. HILLTOPPER (Art Hopper) with his wife is seated by Judy Cook and Linda Stokes of AOPi.

Thirteen candidates were nominated by various groups on campus.

Quartet from PiKA gives out with a tune.

For SAE, Miss Larry Ann Clopton sings one of Ben Price's compositions.

As usual, the AOPi Chorus Line makes a big hit.

Miss Judy McConnell sings "I Wanna Be Evil"

This is what you call "havin a ball".

Filled with school "spirit", the ATO quartet sings our Alma Mater—Hillbilly style.

Vice President Johnny Biddle gives the winners' trophies to Harold Pickel (KA) and Leiser Chandler (Pi Phi).

CATSPAW

The field was open for any type stunt this year, but satire remained king. National and local topics (from the Waters Chapel sign to "dahling" Tallulah) were conscientiously distorted and satirized.

The winning KA-Pi Phi skit had excellent character representation—from the poetry spouting Dean (Harold Pickel) to boisterous Pearl (Betty Scruggs) of the Book Store (Seethin' Saloon). The Theta Chi-A Chi O skit won second place with a "You Are There" theme, and the PiKA-AOPi skit was third with a well-staged take-off on Anthony and Cleopatra.

John Woodham acts as commentator on the Theta Chi-AChiO, "You Were There" skit.

The KA's and the Pi Phi's teamed up to entertain us with their "Saga of Seething Saloon".

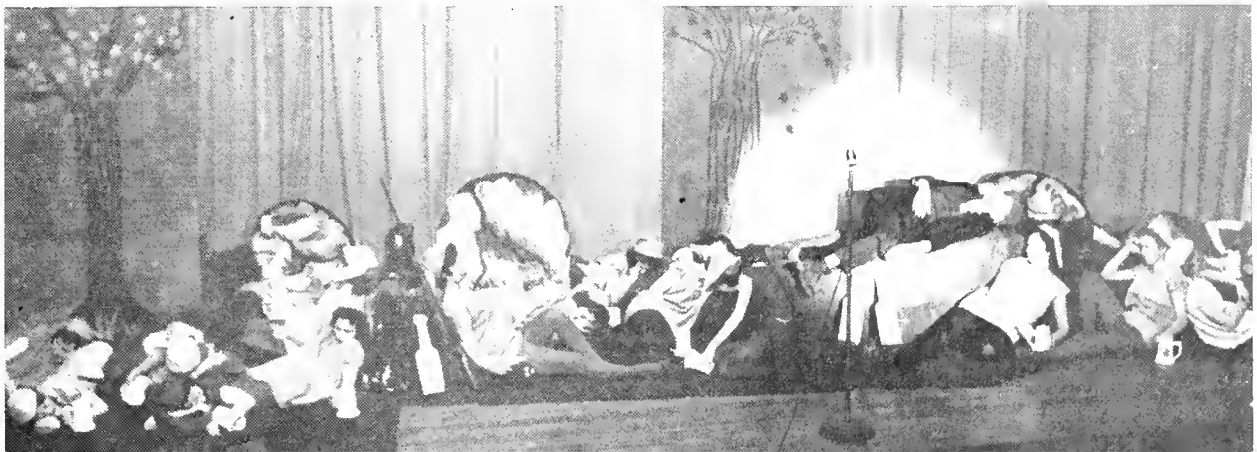

The ATO's and TU's present a large scale satire of campus scenes.

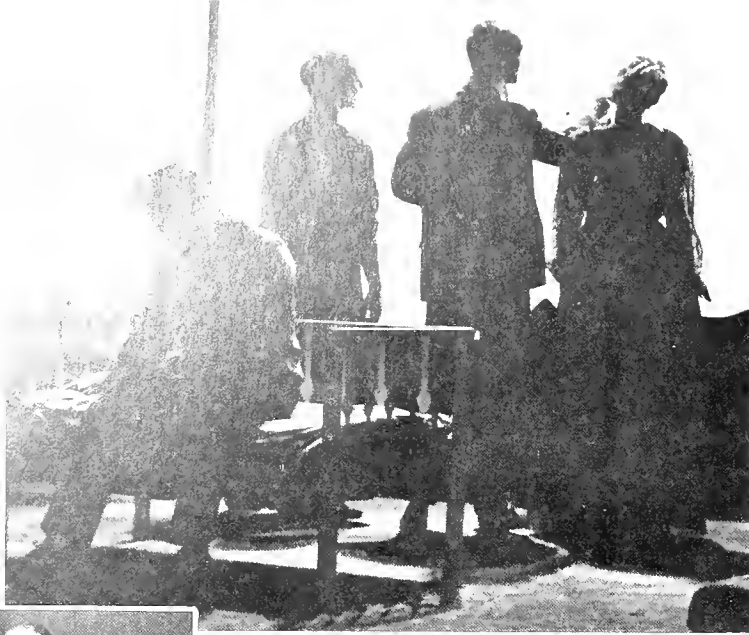

Dr. Stanford's travel abroad is made fun of by the LXA-Independent Women Skit.

The KD's and Independent Men use their best talent—sleeping.

THE CHERRY ORCHARD

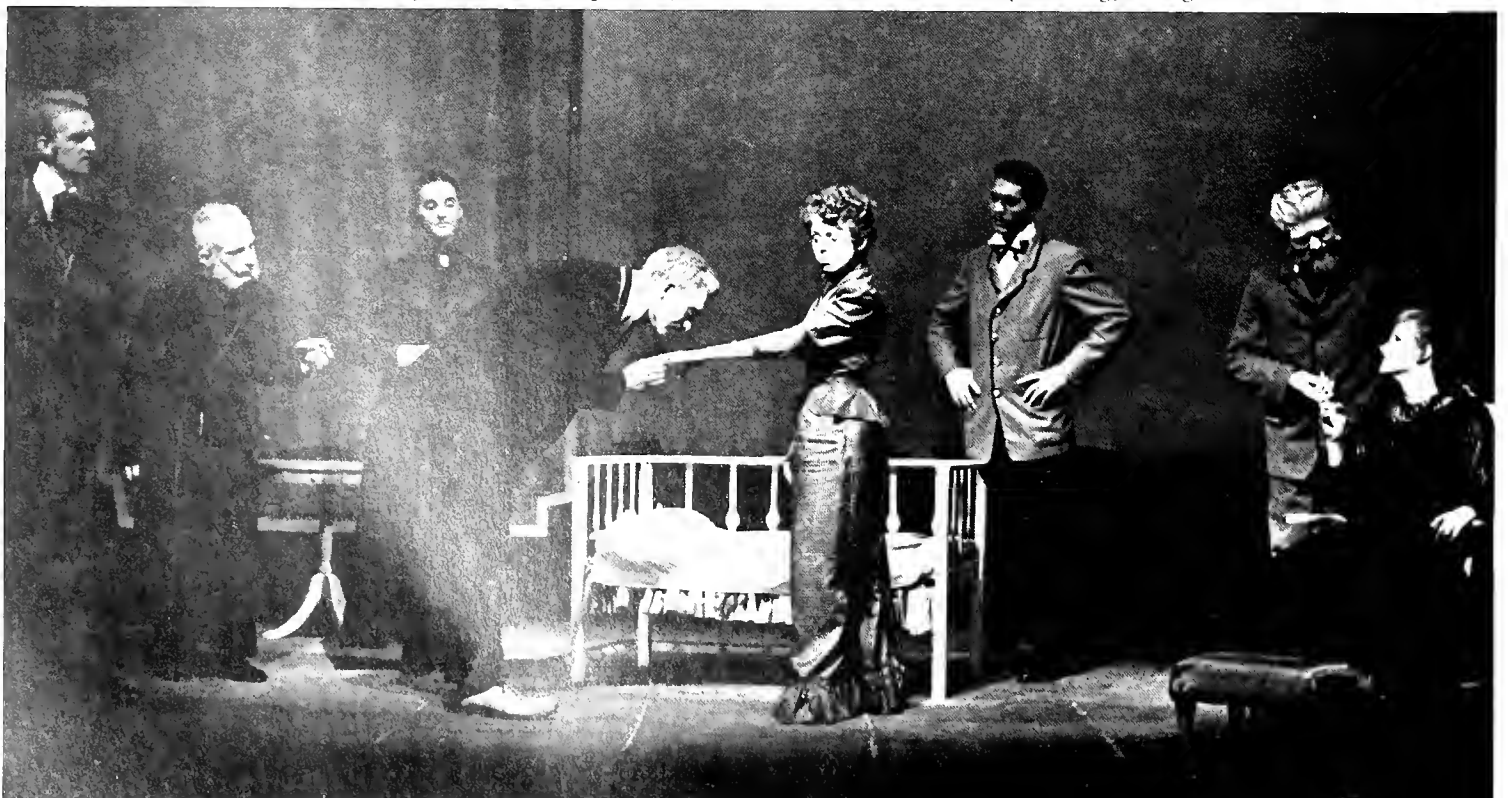

"The Cherry Orchard" is the story of a mortgage, beautiful trees, and a proud landowner. The story revolves around the threat that the land may be sold to pay the debt. Finally the land is sold at public auction to a peasant who has become rich in industry, and the family of Lyubov Andreyevna depart to begin their lives anew.

The cast included Helen Roberts, Art Hopper, Rayford Taylor, Marian Martin, Pat Ellisor, Don Simmons, Pat King, Gordon Tatum, John Kitchens, Martha Bierwiler, Jim Crowell, Britt Leach and Tom Reeves.

The play was directed by Arnold F. Powell, the technical director was Thor Stiff and the costumes were designed by Merla Higgins.

The wealthy landowner, Lopahin (Art Hopper) greets Charlotta (Pat King) the governess.

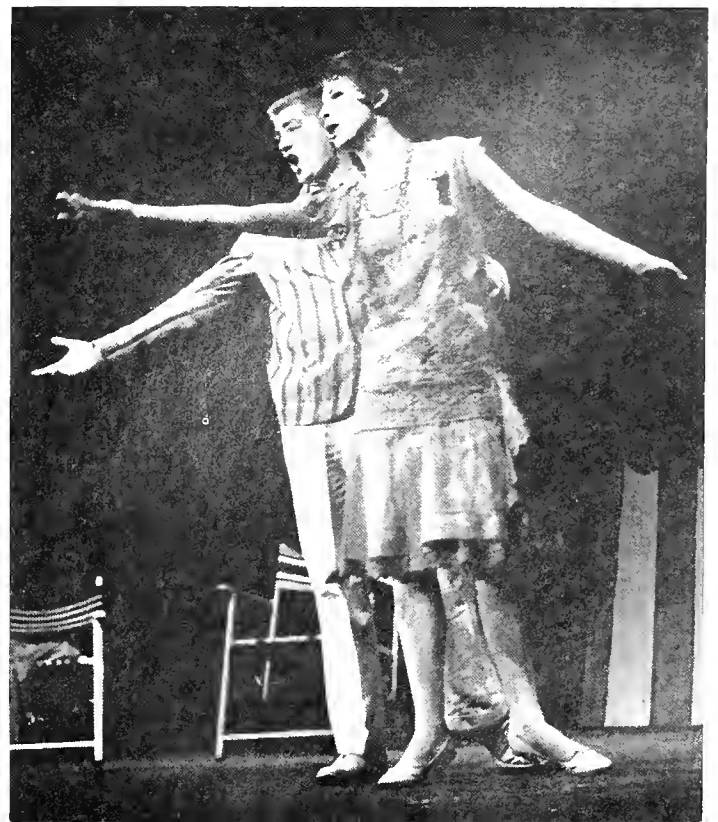

The cast sings and dances a "boyfriend" number.

THE BOY FRIEND

In England it would be called a "spoof"; here the "Boy-friend" is better known as a "take-off" on the music, comedy and life of the roaring 'Twenties. The scene is a fashionable girls' school in Nice. The story is about a poor little rich girl, Polly Browne, who finds her Prince Charming, Tony Brockhurst, disguised as a messenger boy. During a musical romance, Polly and Tony overcome various obstacles and all ends happily.
